Re: LG.Philips LCD Co., Ltd. v. ViewSonic Corporation, et al.;
 U.S. District Court Case No. 04-343 JJF

Dear Special Master Poppiti:

At Your Honor's request, this letter is intended to summarize the telephone conference held on Friday, December 8, 2006. It has been reviewed and approved by all counsel.

The Special Master and all counsel had a telephone conference on Friday, December 8, 2006, starting at 3:45 p.m. to discuss the scheduling of a hearing for all pending discovery motions. The Special Master and the parties have reserved Thursday, December 28, 2006 for that hearing. Not later than December 19, 2006, the parties shall notify the Special Master if they want the hearing to take place in person. (Subsequent to the call, the Tatung Defendants informed plaintiff and ViewSonic that they would prefer an in-person hearing on December 28, 2006.) The Special Master will determine whether the hearing will be in person or by telephone and will schedule the start time accordingly. The parties contemplate that the hearing will take all or most of the day on December 28, 2006.

The Special Master allowed ViewSonic to file a response, not to exceed two pages, to the December 8, 2006 letter to the Special Master from LPL. The Special Master also agreed to receive supplementation of the parties' prior submissions on the pending motions, intended to update the prior submissions, not reargue them, as follows: On December 20, 2006 by 5:00 p.m. EST, the parties will exchange their proposed supplemental statements. Then by December 22, 2006 by 5:00 p.m. EST, the parties will jointly send a single supplemental submission to the Special Master.

In the joint supplemental submission, each party is limited to ten pages (double spaced) per set of motions (i.e., LPL has ten pages for its motions regarding ViewSonic and ten pages for its motions regarding Tatung, and ViewSonic and Tatung each have ten pages for their motions regarding LPL).

Respectfully submitted,

Richard D. Kirk (rk0922)
